Statement of MR. SAMUEL SAKS Business Adjuster

Your well known merchants, Falor & Son, who had the pride to serve you with high grade staple merchandise for many years, had appealed to me to dispose of their tremendous stock at once.

Having learned the truth and receiving the full authority to act, I, Samuel Saks, immediately engaged help, procured over 20,000 Colored Sale Tags, closed the doors for Solid Two Days, in order to bring the stock in shape for fast selling.

I am calling your attention to the fact that my name is not new in the state of Michigan. I only contract sales of reliability and responsible merchants. My name is known from coast to coast and I beg to assure you that I will give you the biggest values known in the history of modern merchandising.

The procured 20,000 blue price tags are being attached to each and every item in the store. From a pair of Shoe Laces to the finest Suit or Overcoat. The sale prices will be marked in plain figures on Blue Tags. The regular prices will be left untouched and unaltered, so the buying public can see that this means business. Nothing reserved—Everything Must Go—And Go Fast! The entire sales force which is under my personal supervision is instructed to wait on trade with the utmost courtesy and give intelligent attention to lookers as well as to buyers.
Sizes will also be marked in plain figures. Shoes will be carefully fitted. I will consider it a special favor if any misunderstanding between shoppers and sales persons will be brought to my attention.

(Signed) SAMUEL SAKS,
of Baltimore, Md., Adjuster.

Think Not a sale as a money making transaction, not a sale of summer left overs—But a genuine Going Out of Business of Reputable Merchants, whose other business interests require their entire attention.

Save Money Rich people who are willing to save, and people with limited means who must save will find in this Going Out of Business Sale their wants.
